

STRUCTURE AND REPRESENTATION OF COALGEBRAS

Pascual Jara

Abstract

Coalgebras can be viewed as generalizations of finite dimensional algebras. Following this idea, in recent papers it is shown that many results from the theory of representation of algebras can be extended to the framework of coalgebras. We explore a combinatorial approach to this problem in which localization, oriented graphs and the dual algebra are the main tools.